Dear Bill:

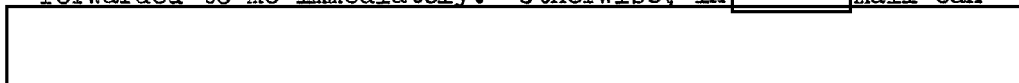

Sorry to have missed you in Nassau where I was for a few days and expect to be again the end of March and throughout April.

A friend of mine was very sorry he missed you there, since he wanted to talk to you. I believe you know him -- he is was in the Air Force Intelligence during the war and stayed in the Reserves. Now he might be going back into the service. In other words, I think he is available and is very anxious to do something useful. I imagine you will hear from him one of these days.

If you ever want to reach me, I am leaving instructions with that anything from Washington should be forwarded to me immediately. Otherwise, in mail can

With all best wishes to you and your bride,

Sincerely yours,
